CUBA MAY FOLLOW.

Rumors Current in London of a Revolution on the Island.

PROBABILITY THAT SHE WILL IMITATE THE EXAMPLE OF BRAZIL.

Stanley's Letter Recounting His Journey to the East Coast of Africa—Revolt of Convicts in the Tunis Prison—Statue to Be Erected to the Memory of Kaiser Wilhelm—Agitation in Canadian Provinces Over the Race Question—Liberal Meetings at Glasgow—Mystery Surrounding the Condition of a Mexican Bank Official—General Foreign News.

London, Nov. 22.—Persistent rumors are afloat in London to-day to the effect that there is a revolution in progress in the Islands of Cuba. Dispatches from Paris report that the rumors are current there and an exciting attention. So far it has been impossible to trace the source of the news, but the assumption is that they have sprung up through the belief that the successful revolution in Brazil would be likely to exert a powerful influence with the discontented population in Cuba. The fact that there is a strict censorship of news dispatches at Havana makes it impossible for a revolutionary movement to get under way in the island before any definite intelligence can reach the outside world. While the rumors are not credited, the news agencies are receiving many inquiries in regard to them and are making vigorous efforts to run them down or to get direct intelligence from Havana as to the actual condition of affairs on the island.

NO NEWS IN NEW YORK.
NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—The Associated Press had dispatches from Havana last night. A dispatch of inquiry has been cable to the correspondent at Havana, but if there is an insurrection of censor will probably forbid any news to be cabled.

Mexico.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—A City of Mexico dispatch says: Jose Inglesias, Cashier of the Old Mexican Mortgage Bank, is reported to have died yesterday morning under mysterious circumstances. He was to make the formal announcement at 10 a. m. to the securities of the institution. Officers of the new syndicate which has acquired control of the bank. Not appearing at the appointed hour, he was sought at his residence and found dead in bed. The man who had been in charge of the old establishment is familiar to New York financial people and the capital has many business interests.

Mr. Antonio Guirard, Resident Vice-President of the bank, through whose instrumentality the transfer to the new syndicate was effected, was unable to be reached yesterday afternoon. He was then in consultation with the other directors. On being questioned by his correspondence he said that the man who had been in charge of the bank had committed suicide and even that he was dead. They maintained that he was in a state of collapse. Mr. Guirard said that a man who had been in charge of the bank when the representative was at that moment counting the securities and cash in the safe of the bank, and who was now at the investigation completed he would communicate the result to your correspondent.

At 7:30 o'clock last night the judicial investigation, which had been adjourned for some trifling discrepancies, brings to light nothing unfavorable to Mr. Inglesias' reputation. The papers and securities were found intact. The amount of cash in the safe was an amount of $800,000. Mr. Inglesias has been pronounced dead by three physicians but his family continues to maintain that he is in a trance. His lines are still set and his body retains a certain degree of warmth.

England.

LONDON, Nov. 22.—The court-room in which the Parnell Commission meets was crowded at the opening of to-day's session. All the counsel for the London Times were present. Sir Henry James continued his speech for the defense. He said: "I am a man of 67 years of age. Mr. Wm. Redmond, £170 and had promised that Mr. Redmond would be called to explain why the payment was made, but he was not called. Mr. Parnell was called. Sir Henry attempted to show, step by step, how the Clan Na-Gael had become partisans of the body which represented the Irish American movement, and controlled and directed its operations. He emphasized the fact that Mr. Parnell did not know the exact date and quoted from an article in the "Irish Times" that Parnell for the stand he had taken. He admitted, however, that Mr. Parnell was probably under the influence of the article.

LIBERAL MEETING AT GLASGOW.
Lord Roseberry addressed a meeting of Liberals at Glasgow last night. He said the Liberal programme would always be crippled until the party adopted a radical and drastic resolution dealing with the House of Lords. Lord Roseberry declared, however, that the house was not in favor of abolishing the House of Lords.

SAILED FOR LISBON.
The United States steamer Enterprise sailed from Dartmouth for Lisbon to-day.

Tunis.

TUNIS, Nov. 22.—A revolt has occurred among the convicts in the Layoute prison. The prisoners succeeded in freeing themselves from their chains and in procuring firearms and other weapons. They made a fierce attack on the jailers, who were unable to sustain the revolt, and the rebels were killed. When they arrived at the jail a desperate fight took place and many of the prisoners and soldiers were killed.

Germany.

BERLIN, Nov. 22.—A syndicate of Berlin banks has secured the pre-emption for 10,000,000 marks, half of which will be for compensation, of all the buildings on the Seehausen, the former residence of the Emperor, the desire of Emperor William to build a monument to his grandfather on the site. The syndicate intends to form a lottery of 40,000,000 marks, with prizes amounting to 50,000 marks.

The Dominion.

WINNIPEG, Manitoba, Nov. 22.—The present agitation arising out of the action of the Greenway Government to abolish schools and the official use of the French language in the provinces has led to a great stir from one end of Canada to the other. Secret meetings are being held almost daily in the scattered villages of St. Boniface, the Government seat of Manitoba, which it is well known, an appeal will be made to the French Government to step in and protect the rights granted to the British. A desperate fight will be made before the French submit to have their school and language rights taken away. The French people have had a great deal of trouble in this matter. Should they be successful, it will be the end of the Manitoba Government in this matter he will lose the support of English-speaking people. If the French are successful, the French Quebec. It is feared that the approaching crisis will break up the confederation of provinces. Archbishop Taschereau has issued a statement in which he says that if the local government persists in its proposed legislation he will ask the British Government to suspend the Manitoba act, which would leave the province without a constitution.

Two Letters From Stanley.

ZANZIBAR, Nov. 22.—Acting British Consul at this place has received the following letter from Stanley:

GERMAN STATION, Mpwapwa.

Nov. 11, 1888.—Sir—We arrived here yesterday, the fifty-fifth day from Victoria Nyanza and the 16th day from Albert Nyanza. We number altogether about 700 souls. At the last mus-

FRENCH PRIDE GETS A SET-BACK IN THE CONSTRUCTION OF THE EIFFEL TOWER.

An American Invention Which Eiffel Could Not Ignore—The Closing Days of the Great Exhibition and Their Features—Mme. Nevada's New Dresses—Lucy Hooper's Letter From Paris.

Special Correspondent of POST-DISPATCH.

PARIS, Oct. 25.—I was told the other day a curious fact about the elevators of the Eiffel Tower. It appears that when that colossal structure was first devised, the French Government exacted of M. Eiffel a pledge that all its component parts should be entirely French, a just decree, since it was to stand as a monument of French constructive art. But when the elevators came to be planned it was discovered that none of the French patents would do for the lower division, where they are compelled to mount, not straight upward, but sideways, to follow the lines of the four great supporting pillars. None of the French elevator companies were capable of overcoming that difficulty. American inventive art was then called upon, and the journey to the first platform has been ever since performed in the other elevators, French ones being substituted from that point for the straight ascent to the summit. Mr. Otis, or his agents, much desired that no change during the journey should be made, but it was held to be impossible by the powers that be that the foreign machine should carry the entire height of the tower.

There have been some temporary stoppages occasionally, and people have been detained in mid-air for twenty minutes at a time, but I am pleased to be able to state that all these involuntary halts took place above the first platform, that is to say, in the regions climbed by the French elevators. The American ones have never had any checks or stops since they have been at work, but have performed their duty with unbroken regularity.

LAST DAY OF THE FAIR.

These last days of the Exposition have brought about no diminution in the crowds of spectators. People go there in as great numbers as heretofore, but they have now deserted the grounds and the gardens and the exterior pavilions for the great halls of the industrial and art exhibits. The latter, and especially the gallery of retrospective art, are thronged all the time. In this last department, where all the treasures of painting produced in France during the last century are so magnificently represented, it is very interesting to note the deep interest taken in the pictures by the spectators. One old lady came up to me yesterday as I was contemplating the portrait of Mme. Bonaparte, and said: "I have a son who is a painter, and he has not 'done' me any good."

HENRY M. STANLEY.
Capt. Wissmann has received the following letter:

GERMAN STATION, Mpwapwa, Nov. 11.
My Dear Capt. Wissmann:—I am bold enough to assure you that I am now sending forward my two letters to Zanzibar at your earliest convenience. I have often wished to see you, but the sea has brought you but a few days from your destination. I hope you will be auspicious and keep you until I have the pleasure of telling you the great news I have to tell you, which is that I have been able to make a rough sketch of the coast of Zanzibar, which has been in charge of the old establishment is familiar to New York financial people and the capital has many business interests.

Mr. Antonio Guirard, Resident Vice-President of the bank, through whose instrumentality the transfer to the new syndicate was effected, was unable to be reached yesterday afternoon. He was then in consultation with the other directors. On being questioned by his correspondence he said that the man who had been in charge of the bank had committed suicide and even that he was dead. They maintained that he was in a state of collapse. Mr. Guirard said that a man who had been in charge of the bank when the representative was at that moment counting the securities and cash in the safe of the bank, and who was now at the investigation completed he would communicate the result to your correspondent.

Mr. Inglesias has been pronounced dead by three physicians but his family continues to maintain that he is in a trance. His lines are still set and his body retains a certain degree of warmth.

Now, then, seek for slowness? Because the retardation of the sentence in the mind and its final form on paper, which to him who has learned to utilize it is the most valuable moment of composition, is to take time, and to do that for that interval; that is, the time that I lose therein all the time gained. For in that brief time all the intonations and grammatical qualities of the words, and even every sentence I have here made, such as it is, while my quill has been squeaking through the paper, after all, may not my thoughts have been continually running and taking care of the verbs and the pronouns, and the commas and the semicolons; so that when the old pen caught up its exact work was ready for it?

WRITING SLOWLY.

Leisurely Composition Makes it Possible to Perfect Literary Work.

From the Writer.

The one absorbing object of this breathless age seems to be rapidity. In putting down ideas on paper, no other quality seems to be taken into account. The typewriting machine that can be made to print 144 words in a minute crowds over the machine that can compass only 123 words a minute.

There are indeed some kinds of work, I conclude, in which most rapidity is the paramount requisite; such work as copying, taking notes, relating to the first class. And I plead native bias toward rapid work in human nature, and the fact that my own experience has not demonstrated that some kinds of work, and especially in original composition, are not to be done more rapidly than by the use of a typewriter.

YESTERDAY'S POST-DISPATCH was a world-beater.

The waiting policy of the police is excellent business policy for the lottery agents.

CHICAGO was said to have been "shrouded in smoke" yesterday. Probably it was steam rising from the soup.

Congressman FRANK consider breaking the laws of his State good training for the business of making the laws of the nation?

If it takes 600 policemen eleven days to arrest five criminals out of 100, how many days will it take one policeman—but life is too short to figure out the problem.

THE Chicago Tribune comes out editorially in favor of postponing the World's Fair until 1893. This is a confession that Chicago is not able to manage the World's Fair of 1892.

CHICAGOANS now urge the postponement of the World's Fair until 1893. They hope at that time by hard work to have a few genuine subscriptions added to their wind guarantee fund.

A DISPATCH from Chicago yesterday stated that a pall hung over the city. Congress had not actually decided the question, but it is well enough to be fully prepared for the funeral.

AMONG the articles brought from the interior of Africa by STANLEY and EMIN BEY is a lot of ivory. Unfortunately the suspicion that STANLEY's expedition had a commercial purpose will arise to detract from the brilliancy of his exploration exploit.

The Police Commissioners who could not venture to decide what constituted an offense against the statutes of Missouri until Commissioner OVERALL returned no longer have that excuse. OVERALL is now here and the enforcement of the laws might as well begin.

The combination of news and advertising yesterday's POST-DISPATCH marked a great triumph of evening over journalism. It gave all the news and a vast amount of valuable information of a business nature. Its increased size and immense amount of advertisements may be taken as a public recognition of the fact that the POST-DISPATCH enables the St. Louis merchants to reach twice as many of their customers as any other local newspaper.

IS IT WILLFUL INEFFICIENCY?

Nearly two weeks have passed since the SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH disclosed the wholesale operations of the lottery agents and their defiant violations of the laws. In this time, although the violations have continued, only five law-breakers have been arrested. Three of the prisoners have been released on account of the stupid blundering of the police and the other two the conviction of one is made extremely doubtful, because the police willfully avoided the very charge on which conviction could be assured and selected two others of an uncertain nature.

The POST-DISPATCH stated that over one hundred lottery agents are actively engaged in breaking the law by selling lottery tickets. It gave the names and addresses of twenty-nine lottery agents. It pointed out that a disreputable sheet in this city printed lottery advertisements continually—almost daily. Since these revelations were made and the police were urged to do their duty, the farcical arrests already mentioned constitute the results of police work.

The indifference of the police authorities on the subject is so strange as to be unaccountable on any other ground except unwillingness to enforce the laws. For some unknown reason the Police Board allowed nearly a week to pass before taking action on the outrageous defiance of law disclosed. When the board finally ordered Chief HUEBLER to prosecute the lottery men vigorously the Chief, with 621 officers and all the machinery of the law at his command, is able to show only one arrest in which conviction is reasonably certain.

The case of the publication of lottery advertisements by the local lottery organ is the strongest of all. An editor, who may or may not be proved responsible, is the only person connected with it arrested. The Congressman, who is the President of the publishing company, and the business manager of the sheet have not been molested. The charges brought against the arrested editor are the weakest that could be found.

The record of the last two weeks is far more disgraceful than that of the previous two years. It is a case of knowing what to do and not doing it. It looks like protecting criminals, and like willful inefficiency badly concealed under a hypocritical show of activity.

SERIOUS internal complications and perhaps civil war are expected to grow out of the steps taken to reconstruct the Government of Brazil, and already the hope is generally expressed in Berlin that the 200,000 Germans settled in Southern Brazil may ask for protection and give the German Government a pretext for interfering with the co-operation of Great Britain. Unless the revolutionists in power conduct the reconstruction movement with great magnanimity and success they may give European powers a chance to test the stamina of our Government's fidelity to the Monroe doctrine. Mr. BLAINE will probably have several opportunities in the next three years to exhibit that boasted Americanism of his under circumstances more trying than those which surround an ordinary campaign speech.

FORAKER's and HALSTEAD's confessions in regard to those forged signatures are hard on SHERMAN and several other leading Ohio Republicans. Instead of casting suspicion on the genuineness of all the signatures, the presence of so many distinguished Republican names seems to have convinced both HALSTEAD and FORAKER that there had been a villainous job in the ballot-box bill, and that the only question to be asked was how to use the document so as to blast CAMPBELL without exposing SHERMAN. There are several Ohio Republican leaders who do not feel flattered by the explanations HALSTEAD and FORAKER have given of their connection with that campaign forgery.

THE report that President HARRISON thinks of giving the vacant place on the Supreme Court bench to Hon. GEORGE W. McCRARY, late of Iowa but now of Missouri, comes from Washington with several elements of probability in its favor. As an Iowa Congressman, as Secretary of War in the Hayes Cabinet, and subsequently as a Circuit Judge in the Federal Courts he made a record as a man of character and ability. The only thing against him is the fact that he made the Federal bench a stepping-stone to a more lucrative attorneyship for the A. T. & S. F. Railroad, and might be just as ready to exchange a Supreme Court justiceship on similar terms.

ST. LOUIS has had its share of misfortunes in the selection of public officials, but she has been spared, hitherto, the deep disgrace of having a representative in Congress who engaged in a business enterprise which involved the continued commission of crimes. As President of a publishing company which prints lottery advertisements almost daily, Congressman FRANK places the representative of the finest district in the State of Missouri on the level of a professional law-breaker.

There is any subject which calls for a vigorous treatment by the clergy of St. Louis it is that of the continued violations of the lottery law through the failure of the authorities to punish the criminals. The immunity enjoyed by violators of the law is an encouragement to law-breaking. Lottery is a form of gambling which corrupts the youth especially, and leads often to disgrace and ruin. It impoverishes its victims and in many cases takes the bread out of the mouths of hungry women and children. The disgrace of having a law against lottery swindles unenforced is a theme for denunciation by the preachers and by all honest citizens on Thanksgiving day and at all times.

What Puzzles Sherman.

From the Springfield (Mass.) Republican.

Senator John Sherman has been seen about the Ohio forgery and Mr. Halstead's explanation, and the same question troubles him which is asked by everybody else—why did FORAKER and the editor, during their long wait pending the trial of their little mine, consult him or McKinley or Butterworth? Mr. Sherman, added the reporter, "was not much surprised by Mr. Halstead's position; he is a little hot-headed." It would be interesting to learn the senator's opinion of FORAKER's strange conduct, but he carefully avoids a statement on that subject. As for the charge against Campbell that he introduced the ballot-box bill in the House, Mr. Sherman says that can amount to nothing, as none other than Senator Hoar introduced a bill on the same subject in the Senate.

A Painful Sight.

From the New York Herald.

Gen. Fitz John Porter has found it necessary to address a letter of protest to Messrs. Nicolay and Hay, who have assailed him in their "Life of Abraham Lincoln." He says: "You have incorrectly described my action; you have unfairly impugned my motives, and are unjustly assailing my loyalty. You charged me with that to a loyal soldier is worse than death. I must also add that you have all this against evidence to the contrary."

The sight of a white-haired veteran whose name is on the roll of retired Generals of the United States Army defending his name against such assaults is a painful thing.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

G.—The bill is not quoted by local dealers.

L. E. L.—A quarter dollar of 1881 is not at a premium.

R. B.—Business addresses are not published in the paper.

SUBSCRIBER.—Belleville, Ill.—The correct expression is three deer.

SUBSCRIBER.—There is no link in this city where skating is taught.

TWO READERS.—You will find an answer to the same question in the next issue.

W. G.—Bret Harte makes the Reform Club, London, his home.

SEVERAL SUBSCRIBERS.—The old Lindell Hotel was destroyed by fire on March 30, 1887.

DISPATCANTS.—The order is as follows:

Goethe, Schiller, Burns, Wordsworth, Pope.

OLD SUBSCRIBER.—The managers of local theaters are averse to giving out engagements for actors in advance.

INGRAMORS.—The letters R. S. V. P. are the initials from French words, meaning "Answer, if you please."

F. E. L.—Congress will probably consider the same question at the World's Fair in January or February next.

READER.—The German language contains more words than the English. Many more people speak English than German.

X. Y. Z.—An evening reception where the ladies dress in a white or plain white or gold stud are the proper things.

ONE CONVICTION.

Proof That the Police Can Make Cases Against the Lottery Men If They Try.

A RECORD WHICH PROVES HOW UTTERLY NEGLIGENT THEY WERE UNTIL THE LASSITUDE WAS POINTED OUT.

For Sixty-Nine Days Preceding November 11, Not One Arrest Was Made, But Seven Were Made and Eight Cases Sealed in the Succeeding Ten Days—William Shaw Is Found Guilty of Selling Lottery Tickets and Fined $100—John Gilbert, Against Whom There Are Two Warrants, Leaves the City—Mr. Overall Says the Board Will Act In Its Own Way and In Its Own Time and Take the Responsibility.

The POST-DISPATCH has done something towards suppressing lottery in St. Louis. It is not assisted by the police to any extent, since it has succeeded in making the court give proper attention to the case brought before them, and when a vendor is convicted he is given not the accustomed fine of $10 and costs, which is never collected, and permitted to go.

William Shaw was tried in the Court of Criminal Correction this morning on a charge of selling lottery tickets. He was convicted and a fine of $100 and costs was imposed. This was a decided departure from the old methods and it is safe to say that this fine will not be remitted.

The lottery vendors will, no doubt, be surprised when they find that a conviction has actually been secured and a fine of $100 imposed. They have thought and said that they were not likely to have any trouble, and they have not been frightened by the crusade the POST-DISPATCH has made against them, but it is safe to say that this fine will probably open their eyes.

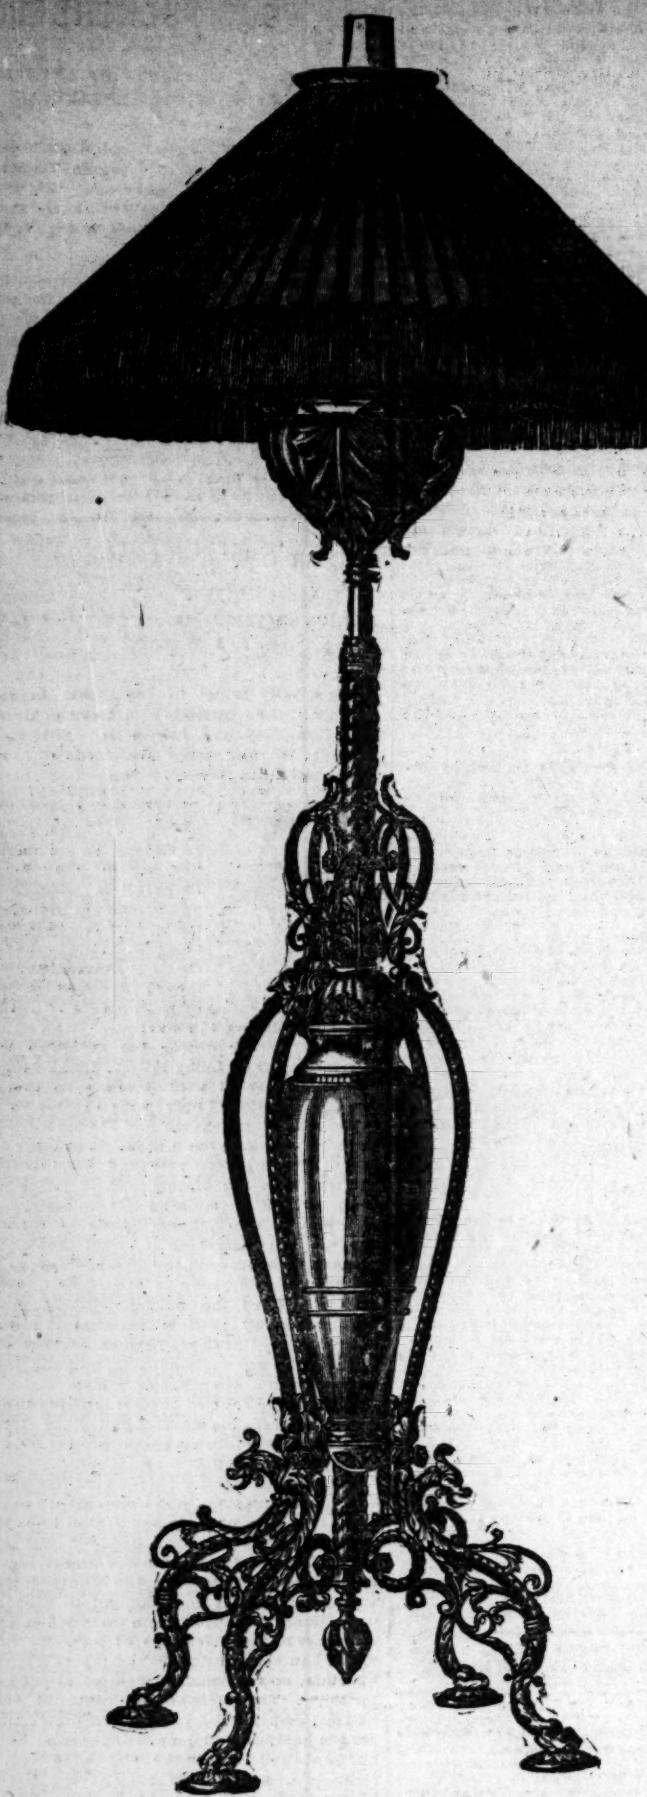

Several other cases are pending and their disposition will be watched with interest, one of it particularly. It has been understood between the police and the Court of Criminal Correction that when a lottery vendor pleaded guilty he should receive only a fine of $10 and costs, and the record shows that has been the penalty imposed whenever a plea of guilty has been entered within the last five years. It will be interesting, now, to know whether in such a case the old agreed fine will be imposed or whether the court will give the vendor a heavier price for carrying on their business.

Mr. John Scullin Invests $14,000 at California and Oregon Avenues—He Says Electric Cars Will Be Running Past the Property in Two Months—A New Hotel to Day's Real Estate Transactions—Other Sales.

M. R. JOHN SCULLIN has invested $14,000 in a block of vacant property fronting on California and Oregon avenues—He says electric cars will be running past the property in two months—A new hotel to day's real estate transactions—Other sales.

R. JOHN SCULLIN has invested $14,000 in a block of vacant property fronting on California and Oregon avenues which he purchased from the Mullanphy Relief Board. The deed to the ground has not passed yet, but a certified check for $300 was given as a earnest money and the papers, now in course of preparation, will be delivered early next week. The ground has a frontage of 600 feet on Oregon and 600 on California avenue, between Utah and Cherokee streets.

Speaking of the proposed transportation improvements in that vicinity, Mr. Scullin today said the wire is now in place to the terminus of his horse-car line at the Springfield road and he expected to have the cars in operation north to Chouteau avenue within the next two months. Mr. Scullin anticipates the opening of this new line of electric transit will create a demand for all the low grade property adjacent to the line, and that the whole route will be well built up within the next three years. It was this view of real estate market that caused him to invest in the Mullanphy block as a speculative venture, and he is going to work right away to properly grade and subdivide it.

Another purchase in this same vicinity was that made by the Hammatt-Anderson-Wade Real Estate Co. less than a month since when the firm paid $4,000 for a block of land known as the Alexander property, on the south side of Cherokee street, immediately opposite to the ground bought by Mr. Scullin. It is reported that Mr. Wade has the opinion that soon as Mr. Scullin gets his electric road into operation there will be a rush for building sites wherever land can be bought in the vicinity. In view of this he With that idea they are going to make all possible speed in preparing their four blocks ready for the spring market.

Other Real Estate Transactions.

Terry Scott perfected the sale of a 52x15 foot lot situated on the east side of Franklin avenue, between Marquette and Gasconade streets, for $1,000. Mr. Marquette sold to Mr. Robert H. Kelsch of Reynolds County, Mo., who Mr. Lange, the salesman, says, is a large man and may be interested in investing in St. Louis real estate.

Nelson & Mersman sold a 52x10 foot lot located on the west side of Franklin avenue, between Marquette and Gasconade streets, for $1,000. Mr. M. A. Argenbright to T. C. Zimmerman.

Another sale by the same firm was that of 10x120 feet of ground located on the west side of Franklin avenue, between Marquette and Gasconade, for $1,000. Mr. J. W. Schudler, who bought on speculation.

The E. C. Grear Real Estate Co. sold $9,160 of ground located on the north side of Magnolia avenue, 220 feet east of Franklin, at $12 a foot, from Mr. E. C. Christensen to Henry Behrens.

A EUROPEAN HOTEL.

The indications are that the old livery stable at the northeast corner of Pine and Ninth streets will soon be torn down and replaced by a European hotel building of about 100 rooms. The site to be built upon has a frontage of 51 by 120 depth of 18 feet. It is owned by Mr. C. C. L. Johnson, a prominent architect, who is now preparing sketches for the building, which will probably cost $300,000. The stone-front building adjoining on the east with a

Budenbender, Who Contradicted Digan's Testimony Yesterday, Placed in Charge of Officers—Few Witnesses Yet to Be Examined by the Defense—To-Day's Proceedings at the Trial.

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 22.—Budenbender, the witness from Hoboken, N. J., who yesterday testified that it was not a white horse which took Dr. Cronin away on May 4, is under arrest. After court adjourned this afternoon, Officer Lindvall, with his prisoner, was at the corner of Clark and Michigan streets, going to the State's Attorney's office, when Mr. Qualey, one of the counsel for the defense, and Mr. Forrest's clerk endeavored to take the prisoner away. A crowd soon collected, but the prisoner was safely landed in the State's Attorney's office. Ashes was as before, the steps on the west side of the Criminal Court building. Mr. Qualey shouted to Budenbender, "You must be taken care of and to keep his mouth shut."

To-Day's Testimony.

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 22.—At the Cronin trial to-day the first witness was Mrs. Pauline Hoertel, the woman who created a sensation in her testimony for the prosecution by telling how she saw a man whose description tallied with that of Cronin enter the Carlson cottage on the night of the murder. She was recalled for further cross-examination. She testified that her husband put a new lock on the door of their house previous to May 4, the day of the murder, in order to keep her out.

The next witness was August Salzman. He testified that he helped Hoertel to put the new lock on the door after May 8. Witness had worked at five or six places during the past two years, but could not remember the names of any of them or when he began or quite work.

The next witness was August Salzman. He testified that he helped Hoertel to put the new lock on the door after May 8. Witness had worked at five or six places during the past two years, but could not remember the names of any of them or when he began or quite work.

To-Day's Testimony.

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 22.—At the Cronin trial to-day the first witness was Mrs. Pauline Hoertel, the woman who created a sensation in her testimony for the prosecution by telling how she saw a man whose description tallied with that of Cronin enter the Carlson cottage on the night of the murder. She was recalled for further cross-examination. She testified that her husband put a new lock on the door of their house previous to May 4, the day of the murder, in order to keep her out.

CLOSING UP THE WORK.

THE ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE NATIONAL SILVER CONVENTION NOW COMPLETE.

Mr. L. M. Rumsey to be Named for Temporary Chairman—The Programme as It Will Be Carried Out—Appointment of the Utah and Ohio Delegates—A Feature of the Decorations.

HE Executive Committee of the National Silver Convention met yesterday afternoon at the Mining Exchange, with Jas. Campbell in the chair and Albert Singer as Secretary. Mr. Joe J. Mullally, Chairman of the Entertainment Committee, made a lengthy report, covering the contracts and arrangements made. These, he said, promised to be of the most perfect and elaborate character. Mr. J. D. Abeles, Chairman of the Committee on Arrangements, also made a detailed report, of a highly satisfactory character, and was authorized to confer with other chairmen for information and arrange for the printing of a programme, This is the programme:

Tuesday, 10 a. m.—The convention to be called to order by James Campbell, the Chairman of the Executive Committee, who will present Mr. L. M. Rumsey and Mr. Albert Singer as temporary chairman and temporary secretary respectively; addresses of welcome by Gov. Francis; behalf of the State and Mayor Noonan for the city; appointment of committees and permanent organization.

Tuesday evening—Grand promenade concert and ball at the Merchants' Exchange.

Wednesday—Regular session of convention.

Wednesday evening—A visit to the theaters, delegates, alternates, and visitors selecting the theater they desire to attend, admissions to be by complimentary invitations exchangeable at any of the theater box-offices for reserved seats.

Thursday morning—Short session of the convention probable.

Thursday afternoon—Carriage drive to points of interest in the city.

Thursday, 6 p. m.—Thanksgiving Day call at the Merchants' Exchange Hall.

Friday—Session of the convention probable.

THE DECORATIONS of the Merchants' Exchange for the concert and collation will be very elaborate, as will also those of the Music Hall for the convention. In connection with the former Mr. Mullally stated that it had been decided to arrange the tables on either side of the fountain. The toastingmaster's table, for the Executive Committee and special speakers, will be white, with a large arrangement of vases to seat 500 people, at angles, so that the fountain decorations will not cut off the view.

Mr. Abeles stated that in decorating Music Hall he had been compelled to give representation of a mine and tunnel at an elevation on the stage.

THE MATTER of temporary organization coming up, it was decided to place Mr. L. M. Rumsey before the convention for temporary Chairman, and Mr. Albert Singer for temporary Secretary, with Mr. J. C. Broadbent for Recording Clerk.

Messrs. Campbell, Rumsey and Singer were constituted a committee to select committees not on the permanent organization, in order to expedite the work of the convention. This, however, of course subject to change.

THE UTAH DELEGATION was received at Salt Lake City from the Governor of that territory. They were selected by the Utah Ore Producers' Association, its latest statement, as follows:

William H. West, Belfontaine; Columbus; John Verner, Wm. S. Gossbeck, Cincinnati; John Bingham, W. D. Duggett, Cleveland; Wm. G. Dasher, Columbus; J. Warner, Marietta; Wm. B. Bickham, Dayton; Wm. H. Bickham, and Dr. Dr. Wm. Wilson, Cincinnati; Frank K. J. Newell, James Kibbush, Columbus; B. B. Perkins, Warren; Ed Stark, Cleveland; J. B. Hurwitz, New York; George, St. Louis; Munson, Medina; George G. Washington; Elyria; J. Warren Keifer, Springfield; James Monroe, Oberlin.

DOG COLLARS, Pug Harness, Dog Soap, Dog Blankets; everything in dog furnishings.

WHAT ALASKA WANTS.

Meeting of the First Republican Convention—Demands on Congress.

SAFETY PIN. A chronic special from Juneau, Alaska, via Port Townsend, Wash., says: The first Republican Convention ever held in Alaska convened at Juneau, November. Delegates were present from all parts of the Territory except from Westward and Yukon River. The convention was opened yesterday with a resolution that the Territory be allowed a delegate to Congress, but no home-state law was extended to Alaska in modified form; that the laws relating to the cutting of timber so modified as to permit its being used for the construction of public buildings and other articles actually manufactured in the Territory; and for the creation of a commission for the purpose of submitting to Congress a code of laws for the Territory.

Secretary Windom Carving a Money Lender.

By Telegraph to the POST-DISPATCH.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—The interest in Wall street in the proposed action of the Secretary of the Treasury in calling in all the deposits of Government money in the national banks was revived yesterday, when it was learned that Mr. Windom had decided to call in all the Government money deposited in the Hanover National Bank. This bank has about $100,000 of Government money, and it is the only bank in the administration under the police fold held by Secretary Fairchild. It is known as a Democratic bank, having as its President James T. Woodward, and its Directors Isidor Straus and Mr. Turkey.

There has been a good deal of criticism of the management of this bank, lately on the ground that it is not a safe place to keep money, and the officers would call in its loans and then reloan money at the higher rates. According to the story told yesterday this has not been the case. Mr. Windom has determined to reduce the amount of its available funds for lending purposes by calling in the amount held there of Government money. And this, no doubt, can be learned of this, but the story was circulated and formed the principal subject for gossip at the Windsor Hotel last night.

At Central Church.

The pastor, Rev. John B. Brandt, will preach at Central Non-Sectional Church, Eleventh and Locust streets, Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, on the subject, "Improving Our Time and Opportunities." The young people's meeting is at 7 p. m. and will be followed by a song and an evangelistic service conducted by Rev. John B. Brandt, the pastor of Central Church, who will speak on "God's Record." Sunday school at 5 p. m. To-day is the third annual day of prayer, the services beginning at 10 o'clock this morning and continuing until 12 o'clock this evening, when there will be one hour's intermission, followed by another service. A different leader will be in charge each hour during the day. The revival meetings are progressing nicely, with good attendance, and the meetings will be continued during next week, the meetings consisting all week and probably longer. There will be no meeting on Saturday night. It is hoped young people of our church who are good singers will volunteer their services.

POCKET knives, hunting knives, razors and strops, playing cards, dominoes, checkers. Open till 9 p. m., Saturday.

A COMEDY OF ERRORS.

How the Board of Public Improvements Did Not Investigate the Work-House Abuse.

The Board of Public Improvements, while not as a rule superstitious, are now firmly impressed with the belief that Jim Carroll, the Superintendent of the Workhouse, has been "hidden away somewhere." The circumstances leading to the impression of this belief are somewhat peculiar and are due to a misunderstanding between members of the board, or rather between Park Commissioner Klemm and the two men mentioned. Last Sunday the POST-DISPATCH published in full the charges made by ex-Guard Walsh and Capt. Carroll, of the Workhouse, and the Board of Public Improvements, it naturally fell to the augur of the augur body to make an investigation. What was most discreditable in the conduct of the board especially those constituting the Committee on Workhouse strove to cover the impression that the charges were not worthy of an official investigation. This was done so as to be the blind of the Superintendent at rest so that he could be appalled when he was caught red-handed. In the meanwhile the board quietly made up its mind to steal the Rock Church, and took it by storm with all the force of the board for pay, and to take testimony. Their preliminary work was well done, and not a soul suspected what was to be done. They had found out the board was to a large audience.

The usual service will be held in St. Mark's Church, the Tabernacle, on the 24th at 11 o'clock. Rev. Portnoy has returned from his tour in Europe, Asia and Africa and will preach in Lee Avenue Church on the 24th at 11 o'clock.

Rev. John Mathews delivered an interesting lecture last night at Centenary M. E. Church on "The Vagaries of the Age" to a large audience.

The usual service will be held in St. Mark's Church, the Tabernacle, on the 24th at 11 o'clock. Rev. D. Rhodes will speak on "Political Sins."

This evening the ladies of the Union M. E. Church will have a reception at the church and the members of the Union Extension Society, now in session, will be present.

A farewell reception was tendered Dr. Merrill at the First Congregational Church, on Franklin, last evening. Dr. Merrill will remain with the Wabash.

Dr. Rhodes of St. Mark's Lutheran Church will preach in the morning on "The Discourse and Comforts of the Christian Life."

Rev. J. W. Ford of the Second Baptist Church will preach. All the Baptist ministers of the city will be present.

Mr. Clara Hoffman will deliver her new lecture, "The Problem That Faces Us," to night at Cumberland Presbyterian Church, 11th and Chestnut.

The ladies and gentlemen of the Sacred Heart Church are actively engaged in a rehearsal for a dramatic entertainment to be given in connection with the church fair, which will be held on the 25th and 26th for four days.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Hyde Park Congregational Church gave a sociable last night at the church on Fifteenth street and Bremen.

Dr. George W. Hall read a paper on "The Evolution of Our Civil and Religious Freedom."

The Ladies' Aid Society gave a concert at Arcade Hall, in Cabanne place, last evening. Dr. George W. Hall read a paper on "The Evolution of Our Civil and Religious Freedom."
